Data Protection

Aqaba Investment Holding may from time to time require you to provide certain information in order to assist Aqaba Investment Holding in dealing with a loan application and/or a review of an existing facility. Aqaba Investment Holding will process your personal data fairly and lawfully in accordance with the principles of the Data Protection legislation for the purposes of assessing funding applications (and related and ancillary facilities) from time to time offered by Aqaba Investment Holding, and for reviewing existing funding arrangements (but not otherwise). We will not process any personal data for any purpose other than those expressly authorised by you.

You acknowledge and agree that in certain circumstances we may be obliged to disclose/share personal information relating to you to/with third parties, for example, in order to conform to any requirements of law or to comply with any legal and/or our business process, as well as to protect and defend our rights or property, our funders and/or our other customers.

If at any time after giving us personal information you decide that you no longer wish us to hold or use this information, or in the case that the information becomes out of date, you are free to notify us, and we will remove or rectify the information within a reasonable time and in accordance with legislative requirements.

In recognition that Aqaba Investment Holding will be relying on information and data provided by you, you undertake, warrant and represent that all such information and data supplied or disclosed to Aqaba Investment Holding will be true and accurate in all material respects and no fact or matter not supplied or disclosed in that information and data, which might reasonably be expected to be disclosed in or with it, will render the information or data supplied untrue, misleading, false or deceptive whether because of omission, ambiguity or any other reason. You further warrant that in providing or supplying information and data, you have full authority to do so and that such information and data is not being supplied in breach of any third party obligation.

Declaration

I have read and understand the above statements and consent to the use and disclosure of the personal data and information I provide as outlined above:
